

Status of collection of assessed contributions, including Member States in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution

Report by the Secretariat

STATUS OF COLLECTION

1. In order that WHO may deliver the approved programme budget in full, contributions from Member States must be received in full and on time. All Member States are required under Financial Regulation 6.4 to pay their contribution as of 1 January of the year in which it is due.
2. The rate of collection for 2008 was 90%, the same as that for 2007; contributions were received in full from 141 of the 195 Members and Associate Members. Full details of amounts assessed and collected are shown in Annex 1.
3. Unpaid contributions as at 31 December 2008 amounted to US$ 75 million, with a further US$ 48 million due under special arrangements authorized by the Health Assembly, payable in the future, under instalment schemes. Details of payments made to date in respect of special arrangements are shown in Annex 2.

MEMBERS IN ARREARS AND SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS

4. Article 7 of the Constitution states that “If a Member fails to meet its financial obligations to the Organization ... the Health Assembly may ... suspend the voting privileges ... to which a Member is entitled.” If at the time of the opening of the Health Assembly, a Member is in arrears in an amount that equals or exceeds the amount of contributions due from it for the preceding two full years, the Health Assembly takes a decision on suspension of the Member’s voting privileges in accordance with resolution WHA41.7.
5. In accordance with previous Health Assembly resolutions, the voting privileges of the following eight Member States have been suspended: Argentina, Azerbaijan, Central African Republic, Comoros, Dominica, Guinea-Bissau, Somalia and Tajikistan. Details of the amounts outstanding are provided in Annex 3. The suspension is to continue at the Sixty-second World Health Assembly and at subsequent Health Assemblies until the arrears have been reduced to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution. Argentina paid US$ 16 million of their arrears in 2008 and will be submitting a Rescheduling Plan in respect of the remaining arrears for the consideration of the Health Assembly at a future date. The voting privileges of the following five Member States have been restored as the amount in which they are in arrears has been reduced to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution: Afghanistan, Cape Verde, Iraq, Kyrgyzstan, and Turkmenistan.

6. In accordance with resolution WHA61.7, the voting privileges of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Gambia and Solomon Islands will be suspended at the Sixty-second World Health Assembly until the arrears have been reduced to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution. The voting privileges of Togo will not be suspended as its arrears have been reduced to a level below the amount that justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution.

7. Nine other Member States, namely, Belarus, Cape Verde, Chad, Côte d'Ivoire, Iran (Islamic Republic of), Marshall Islands, Palau, Sudan and Zambia, are in arrears in the payment of their contributions in amounts which equal or exceed the amounts due from them for the preceding two full years, as listed in Annex 3.

8. Pursuant to resolution WHA41.7, unless there are exceptional circumstances justifying a different measure, the Sixty-second World Health Assembly may wish to adopt a resolution deciding that the voting privileges of Belarus, Cape Verde, Chad, Côte d'Ivoire, Iran (Islamic Republic of), Marshall Islands, Palau, Sudan and Zambia will be suspended as from the opening day of the Sixty-third World Health Assembly in May 2010, if at that time the Member States concerned are still in arrears to the extent referred to in paragraph 7 above.

9. Member States in arrears of payment to an extent that they are concerned by Article 7 of the Constitution are encouraged to submit proposals to the Health Assembly for repaying such arrears over an extended period. Such proposals for special arrangements are considered by the Programme, Budget and Administration Committee of the Executive Board, which subsequently makes its recommendations to the Health Assembly.

10. Annex 2 lists the Member States that currently have special arrangements for repayment of arrears. Payments totalling over US$ 5 million were received in 2008 in accordance with these special arrangements. All Member States concerned are respecting their commitments under these arrangements, with the exception of the following Members with whom discussions on repayments are continuing: Azerbaijan, Belarus, Central African Republic and Tajikistan.

ACTION BY THE HEALTH ASSEMBLY

11. No action is required by the Health Assembly in respect of those Members whose voting privileges have already been suspended under previous Health Assembly resolutions, or of those Members that may lose their voting privileges as from 18 May 2009 under resolution WHA61.7 (if by that time these Members are still in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that justifies invoking Article 7 of the Constitution).

12. The Health Assembly may wish to consider the following draft resolution in respect of Belarus, Cape Verde, Chad, Côte d'Ivoire, Iran (Islamic Republic of), Marshall Islands, Palau, Sudan and Zambia, in accordance with the principles stated in resolution WHA41.7:

The Sixty-second World Health Assembly,

Having considered the report of the Secretariat to the Sixty-second World Health Assembly on status of collection of assessed contributions, including Members in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution, and special arrangements for settlement of arrears;

Noting that, at the time of opening of the Sixty-second World Health Assembly, the voting rights of Argentina, Azerbaijan, Central African Republic, Comoros, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Dominica, Gambia, Guinea-Bissau, Solomon Islands, Somalia and Tajikistan were suspended, such suspension to continue until the arrears of the Members concerned have been reduced, at the present or future Health Assemblies, to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution;

Noting that, Belarus, Cape Verde, Chad, Côte d'Ivoire, Iran (Islamic Republic of), Marshall Islands, Palau, Sudan and Zambia were in arrears at the time of the opening of the Sixty-second World Health Assembly to such an extent that it was necessary for the Health Assembly to consider, in accordance with Article 7 of the Constitution, whether or not the voting privileges of those countries should be suspended at the opening of the Sixty-third World Health Assembly,

DECIDES:

(1) that in accordance with the statement of principles set out in resolution WHA41.7 if, by the time of the opening of the Sixty-third World Health Assembly, Belarus, Cape Verde, Chad, Côte d'Ivoire, Iran (Islamic Republic of), Marshall Islands, Palau, Sudan and Zambia are still in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution, their voting privileges shall be suspended as from the said opening;

(2) that any suspension that takes effect as aforesaid shall continue at the Sixty-third World Health Assembly and subsequent Health Assemblies, until the arrears of Belarus, Cape Verde, Chad, Côte d'Ivoire, Iran (Islamic Republic of), Marshall Islands, Palau, Sudan and Zambia have been reduced to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution;

(3) that this decision shall be without prejudice to the right of any Member to request restoration of its voting privileges in accordance with Article 7 of the Constitution.
