
Engagement with non-State actors

The Executive Board, having examined the report on non-State actors in official relations with WHO, including the review of one third of the non-State actors in official relations with WHO,¹

- (1) decided:
 - (a) to admit into official relations with WHO the following non-State actors: Association Africaine des Centrales d'Achats de Médicaments Essentiels; Bloomberg Family Foundation, Inc.; Childhood Cancer International; International Society of Paediatric Oncology; IOGT International; KNCV Tuberculosis Foundation; Médecins du Monde; Osteopathic International Alliance; PATH; Public Services International; The Wellcome Trust; and United States Pharmacopeia Convention;
 - (b) to discontinue official relations with the following non-State actors: European Centre for Ecotoxicology and Toxicology of Chemicals; Foundation for Innovative New Diagnostics; International Federation of Business and Professional Women; and Rehabilitation International;
- (2) noted with appreciation their collaboration with WHO, commended their continuing dedication to the work of WHO, and decided to renew in official relations with WHO the 66 non-State actors whose names are listed in Annex 2 to document EB142/29;
- (3) further noted that plans for collaboration with the following entities have yet to be agreed, and decided to defer the review of relations with CBM; CropLife International; International Agency for the Prevention of Blindness; International Air Transport Association; International Association for the Study of Pain; International Eye Foundation; International Network for Cancer Treatment and Research; International Society of Physical and Rehabilitation Medicine; Project ORBIS International, Inc.; World Blind Union; and World Council of Optometry until the 144th session of the Board in January 2019, at which time reports should be presented to the Board on the agreed plans for collaboration and on the status of relations.
