

Global action plan on the public health response to dementia

The Seventieth World Health Assembly, having considered the draft global action plan on the public health response to dementia 2017–2025,¹ decided:

- (1) to endorse the global action plan on the public health response to dementia 2017–2025;
- (2) to urge Member States² to develop, as soon as practicable, ambitious national responses to the overall implementation of the global action plan on the public health response to dementia 2017–2025;
- (3) to request the Director-General to submit a report on progress made in implementing this decision to the Seventy-third, Seventy-sixth and Seventy-ninth World Health Assemblies.
