

A vertical strip on the left side of the cover features a microscopic image of placental tissue, showing various cellular structures and blood vessels in shades of orange and red.

WHO guidelines for the management of postpartum haemorrhage and retained placenta

