

The Regional Committee,

Accepting the principle of holding alternate sessions of the Regional Committee at the regional headquarters,

- 1 ACCEPTS the formal invitation of the Government of India to hold its seventh session in New Delhi.
- 2 DECIDES that its eighth session, however, will be held outside New Delhi if a suitable invitation is received, and
- 3 REQUESTS those Member Governments who wish to act as hosts to the eighth session to convey their offer to the Regional Director as early as possible; further,
- 4 DECIDES that, in the event of no formal invitation being received for holding a meeting outside New Delhi, the eighth session will be held at the seat of the Regional Office.

September 1963