

WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION

REGIONAL COMMITTEE

Third Session
Saigon
25th to 30th September 1952

REGIONAL OFFICE
WESTERN PACIFIC

WP/RC3/TD/R1

The Regional Committee of the Western Pacific

HAVING considered the complexity and diversity of the subject of ancillary and auxiliary medical and health personnel

REQUESTS Member Countries of the Region

1. To consider the types and courses of training according to the needs of the particular public health service in their areas with the view to keep the standard of training as high as possible;
2. To give those who have completed the prescribed training
 - a) a pre-service experience and training if possible;
 - b) a refresher course from time to time and
3. To place the practice of their profession under supervision of a qualified licenciate.