

10 million men stepped up for HIV prevention through voluntary medical male circumcision services

Voluntary medical male circumcision reduces the risk of female-to-male HIV transmission

New HIV infections

5,500
EVERY DAY GLOBALLY

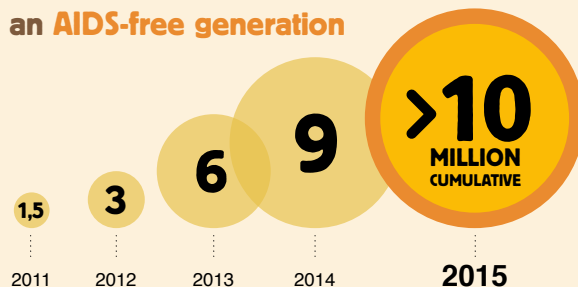

About 66% of new HIV infections are in sub-Saharan Africa

VMMC focuses in East and Southern Africa

In only 5 years more than 10 million men circumcised – contributing to an AIDS-free generation

MEDICAL MALE CIRCUMCISION PLUS OTHER PREVENTION SERVICES FOR MEN

A package of HIV prevention services is available to men, including offer of HIV testing and links to treatment, condom promotion and provision, management of other sexually transmitted infections and safer sex education.

TEST FOR HIV

LINK TO CARE

TREAT STIs

CONDOMS

EDUCATE ON SAFER SEX

World Health Organization