PROPOSED GUIDELINES FOR THE CONDUCT OF THE TECHNICAL DISCUSSIONS

The Role of Immunization in Communicable-Disease Control

1. The case for immunization

1.1 Some problems in the prophylactic immunization of communicable diseases (document SEA/RC12/5)

2. Report on questionnaires received from Health Administrations on immunizations against the major communicable diseases in South-East Asia (document SEA/RC12/6)

3. Recommendations for a programme of priorities in immunization campaigns in the Region

4. Planning, organization and administration of immunization programmes against some of the major communicable diseases in South-East Asia

4.1 Organization of a smallpox eradication campaign (administrative, technical and budgetary considerations)

5. Planning of controlled field trials of prophylactic vaccines

5.1 Suggestions for organizing field trials with cholera vaccine (to be introduced by Professor R. Cruickshank)