

Status of collection of assessed contributions, including Member States in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution

The Sixty-ninth World Health Assembly,

Having considered the report on the status of collection of assessed contributions, including Member States in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution, and special arrangements for settlement of arrears;<sup>1</sup>

Having noted the report of the Programme, Budget and Administration Committee of the Executive Board to the Sixty-ninth World Health Assembly;<sup>2</sup>

Noting that, at the time of opening of the Sixty-ninth World Health Assembly, the voting rights of Central African Republic, Comoros, Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, Somalia, Ukraine and Yemen were suspended, such suspension to continue until the arrears of the Member States concerned have been reduced, at the present or future Health Assemblies, to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution;

Noting also that Burundi, El Salvador, Solomon Islands and Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of) were in arrears at the time of the opening of the Sixty-ninth World Health Assembly to such an extent that it was necessary for the Health Assembly to consider, in accordance with Article 7 of the Constitution, whether the voting privileges of those four countries should be suspended at the opening of the Seventieth World Health Assembly,

DECIDES:

(1) that, in accordance with the statement of principles set out in resolution WHA41.7 (1988), if, by the time of the opening of the Seventieth World Health Assembly, Burundi, El Salvador, Solomon Islands and Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of) are still in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution, their voting privileges shall be suspended as from the said opening;

(2) that any suspension that takes effect as set out in paragraph (1) above shall continue at the Seventieth World Health Assembly and subsequent Health Assemblies until the arrears of
