

Global strategy and plan of action on public health, innovation and intellectual property

The Executive Board, having considered the report by the Director-General on the Global strategy and plan of action on public health, innovation and intellectual property,¹

Decided to recommend to the Seventy-fifth World Health Assembly the adoption of the following resolution:

The Seventy-fifth World Health Assembly,

Having considered the report by the Director-General on the global strategy and plan of action on public health, innovation and intellectual property;

Recalling resolutions WHA61.21 (2008), WHA62.16 (2009), WHA68.18 (2015) and WHA72.8 (2019), and decisions WHA71(9) (2018) and WHA73(11) (2020) on the global strategy and plan of action on public health, innovation and intellectual property that aims to promote new thinking on innovation and access to medicines;

Reiterating the essential role that the global strategy and plan of action on public health, innovation and intellectual property plays in directing and coordinating WHO's policies and programme on this interface, including the WHO-WIPO-WTO trilateral cooperation;

Stressing that the relationship, including the balance, between public health, innovation and intellectual property is a critical component of sustainable and resilient health systems, as well as but not limited to the prevention of, preparedness for and response to health emergencies, including the ongoing pandemic of coronavirus disease (COVID-19) and future pandemics;

Acknowledging the continued value of the principles and elements of work enshrined in the global strategy and plan of action on public health, innovation and intellectual property, which guide and frame the work of WHO on access to medicines and other health products;

Reaffirming the goals and objectives of the global strategy and and plan of action on public health, innovation and intellectual property, and recognizing the important contribution and prioritization effort made by the overall programme review of the global strategy and plan of action on public health, innovation and intellectual property;²

² Comprehensive Evaluation of the Implementation of the Global Strategy and Plan of Action on Public Health, Innovation and Intellectual Property (http://www.who.int/about/evaluation/gspoa_report_final20dec16.pdf, accessed 29 January 2022).

Renewing the expression of Member States' shared concern about the pace of implementation of the global strategy and plan of action on public health, innovation and intellectual property by stakeholders as defined in the Appendix of the global strategy,¹ which was further hindered by the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic;

Noting the contribution that several activities within the plan of action might have in helping to meet targets set in the Sustainable Development Goals,

1. DECIDES to extend the time frame of the plan of action on public health, innovation and intellectual property from 2022 until 2030;
2. URGES Member States:
 - (1) to reinforce the implementation, as appropriate and taking into account national contexts, of the recommendations of the review panel that are addressed to Member States to the extent they are consistent with the global strategy and plan of action on public health, innovation and intellectual property;
 - (2) to identify and share, through informal consultations to be convened by WHO at least every two years, best practices related to the implementation of actions within the global strategy and plan of action on public health, innovation, and intellectual property;
3. REITERATES to the Director-General the importance of allocating the necessary resources to implement the recommendations of the review panel of the overall programme review addressed to the WHO Secretariat as prioritized by the review panel, to the extent they are consistent with the global strategy and plan of action on public health, innovation, and intellectual property;
4. REQUESTS the Director-General:
 - (1) to continue to provide technical assistance and knowledge sharing that could enable countries to implement actions consistent with the global strategy and plan of action on public health, innovation, and intellectual property;
 - (2) to promote collaboration and coordination within and among countries and with relevant stakeholders, for the implementation of actions consistent with the global strategy and plan of action on public health, innovation, and intellectual property;
 - (3) to identify potential synergies in and challenges to ongoing work within the Secretariat for the implementation of actions consistent with the global strategy and plan of action on public health, innovation, and intellectual property;
 - (4) to conduct, in 2023, a review of the indicators included in the 2017 report of the expert review panel of the plan of action in consultation with Member States,² and to
