

Standing Committee on Health Emergency (Pandemic) Prevention, Preparedness and Response

Report by the Director-General

1. By decision EB150(6) (2022) the Executive Board, following consideration of the report on a Standing Committee on Pandemic and Emergency Preparedness and Response¹ and taking into account the deliberations at its 150th session² requested the Director-General to, inter alia, facilitate further informal consultations in an inclusive, transparent manner among Member States³ in order to finalize the draft terms of reference of the Standing Committee on Health Emergency (Pandemic) Prevention, Preparedness and Response, with a view to submitting the terms of reference for consideration by the Executive Board at its 151st session in May 2022. In the implementation of the above-mentioned mandate, a number of informal consultations were held during the pre-session period.

ACTION BY THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

2. The Board is invited to note the report.
