

Involvement of non-State actors in WHO's governing bodies

The Executive Board, having examined and noted the report by the Director-General,¹

Decided:

- (1) that the constituency statements will continue to be implemented during all WHO governing body meetings, in accordance with the modalities outlined in paragraphs 15 to 17 of document EB152/38;
- (2) that the Secretariat regularly consult Member States and non-State actors in official relations with a view to improving these modalities based on such consultations, and that the results of the first consultation be submitted for consideration by the the Executive Board at its 156th session;
- (3) to request the Director-General to explore the implications of this decision for statements delivered by observers and report to the 153rd session of the Executive Board, through the Programme, Budget and Administration Committee of the Executive Board.
