

Report of the International Civil Service Commission

Report by the Director-General

1. The Director-General transmits to the Executive Board herewith the report of the International Civil Service Commission for the year 2022.<sup>1</sup>
2. Under its Statute,<sup>2</sup> the International Civil Service Commission is required to submit an annual report to the United Nations General Assembly for transmission to the governing bodies of the organizations of the United Nations system, through their executive heads, as well as to staff representatives. The Commission's forty-eighth annual report is scheduled to be considered by the General Assembly at its seventy-seventh session.
3. Decisions expected to be taken by the General Assembly on the Commission's recommendations requiring a revision of WHO's Staff Rules will be reported separately to the Executive Board in the report on amendments to the Staff Regulations and Staff Rules. The financial implications of the amendments to the Staff Regulations and Staff Rules for the biennium 2022–2023 will also be reported separately to the Board in the report on the financial and administrative implications for the Secretariat of the resolutions proposed for the Board's adoption.
4. A verbal update on the decisions expected to be taken by the General Assembly in December 2022 on the basis of the Commission's recommendations will be provided to the Executive Board at its 152nd session by the Director of the Department of Human Resources and Talent Management.

SUMMARY OF RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION THAT CALL FOR DECISIONS BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND THE LEGISLATIVE ORGANS OF THE OTHER PARTICIPATING ORGANIZATIONS<sup>1</sup>

A. Conditions of service applicable to both categories of staff

Framework for contractual arrangements<sup>2</sup>

5. The Commission recommends to the General Assembly that the provisions for annual leave for temporary appointments across the common system organizations should be harmonized at 2.5 days of leave per month.

B. Remuneration of staff in the Professional and higher categories

Base/floor salary scale<sup>3</sup>

6. The Commission recommends to the General Assembly, for approval with effect from 1 January 2023, the revised unified base/floor salary scale, as well as the updated pay protection points for the Professional and higher categories, as shown in annex IX to its report for the year 2022, reflecting a 2.28% adjustment, to be implemented by increasing the base salary and commensurately decreasing post adjustment multiplier points, resulting in no change in net take-home pay.

Evolution of the United Nations/United States net remuneration margin<sup>4</sup>

7. The Commission reports to the General Assembly that the margin between the net remuneration of officials in the Professional and higher categories of the United Nations in New York and that of officials in comparable positions in the United States federal civil service in Washington, D.C., was estimated at 113.9 for the calendar year 2022.

Children's and secondary dependants' allowances: review of methodology and level<sup>5</sup>

8. The Commission recommends to the General Assembly that, based on its decision to revise the methodology, as of 1 January 2023:

- (a) the child allowance be set at US$ 3322 per annum;
- (b) the disabled child allowance be set at US$ 6645 per annum;
- (c) the secondary dependant's allowance be set at US$ 1163 per annum;

(d) at hard-currency duty stations, the United States dollar amount of the allowances, as established in subparagraphs (a) and (b) above, be converted to the local currency using the official United Nations exchange rate as of the date of promulgation and remain unchanged until the next biennial review;

(e) the dependency allowances be reduced by the amount of any direct payments received by staff from a government in respect of dependants;

(f) any transitional measures remaining in effect as a result of the revised methodology of 1 January 2009 would be discontinued in accordance with the Commission's earlier decision to discontinue such transitional measures upon the completion of two review cycles (document A/63/30, para. 129 (d)).

ACTION BY THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

9. The Board is invited to take note of the report.
