Involvement of non-State actors in WHO’s governing bodies

The Executive Board, having examined and noted the report on WHO governance reform: Involvement of non-State actors in WHO’s governing bodies,¹

Decided:

(1) that the constituency statements will continue to be implemented during all WHO governing body meetings, in accordance with the modalities outlined in paragraphs 15 to 17 of document EB152/38;

(2) to include the two UN Observer States in this process without any prejudice to the new way of work; [OMAN]

(3) the Secretariat regularly consults Member States and non-State actors in official relations with a view to improving these modalities based on such consultations, and that the results of the first consultation be presented for consideration to the 156th session of the Executive Board. [CANADA]
