Status of collection of assessed contributions, including Members in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent which would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution

Special arrangements for settlement of arrears

Third report of the Administration, Budget and Finance Committee of the Executive Board to the Fifty-sixth World Health Assembly

1. The Administration, Budget and Finance Committee met on 15 May 2003 under the chairmanship of Dr A.A. Yoosuf (Maldives) to consider, inter alia, the status of collection of assessed contributions including Members in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution (see Annex), and to consider the proposal by Kazakhstan for a special arrangement for settlement of arrears.¹

STATUS OF COLLECTION

2. The Committee noted that the rate of collection of assessed contributions was 27% at 30 April 2003, compared with 33% at 30 April 2002.

3. The Committee also noted with much appreciation that, since preparation of the document contained in the Annex, 14 additional Members had made payment of the amount of contributions due for 2003 in full, and, in the case of some Member States, partial or full payment for future years (Azerbaijan, Barbados, Benin, Botswana, Cambodia, Ethiopia, France, Guatemala, Jamaica, Myanmar, Seychelles, Slovenia, Uganda and the United Republic of Tanzania). A further two Members, Bolivia and Italy, had partially paid their assessed contributions for 2003. As a result of these payments, the overall collection rate had risen to 38.5% at the time of the Committee's meeting.

4. Following the receipt of a further US$ 2 million in respect of prior years' contributions, the Committee noted that the total due for prior years had been reduced to US$ 106 million, compared to US$ 126 million at 30 April 2002.

5. The Committee noted that the voting privileges of 24 Members (Afghanistan, Antigua and Barbuda, Armenia, Central African Republic, Chad, Comoros, Djibouti, Dominican Republic, Georgia, Guinea-Bissau, Iraq, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Liberia, Nauru, Niger, Nigeria, Republic of Moldova, Somalia, Suriname, Tajikistan, Togo, Turkmenistan and Ukraine) remained suspended, and that suspension would continue at the Fifty-sixth and subsequent World Health Assemblies until the arrears had been reduced to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution.

6. The Committee also noted that no payment had been received from Argentina, and that, unless sufficient payment was received before the opening of the Fifty-sixth World Health Assembly, voting privileges of Argentina would be suspended as from the aforesaid opening, in accordance with resolution WHA55.4. The Committee was informed that Paraguay had made a significant payment, which was, however, insufficient to remove them from the provisions of Article 7. Paraguay had, however, advised that further funds were being paid. The Committee noted that, unless these funds were received before the opening of the Fifty-sixth World Health Assembly, the voting privileges of Paraguay would be suspended; if sufficient funds were received by the time of that opening, Paraguay would retain its voting privileges. Any further developments will be reported to Committee B.

7. Pursuant to resolution WHA41.7, unless there were exceptional circumstances justifying a different measure, the Fifty-sixth World Health Assembly would adopt a resolution under which the voting rights of Belarus, Burundi, Peru, Saint Lucia and Venezuela would be suspended as from the opening of the Fifty-seventh World Health Assembly. As a result of payments made by Uruguay in May 2003, the Committee noted that that country would no longer be included under such a resolution.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR SETTLEMENT OF ARREARS

8. The Committee then examined the request by Kazakhstan for a special arrangement for the settlement of its arrears. The Committee expressed its appreciation to Kazakhstan for presenting these proposals but also its concern about the length of the proposed arrangement, 10 years, and the level of the minimum payment, US$ 200 000, given the overall amount of arrears of US$ 4 615 253.

9. The Committee considered several approaches including a request to Kazakhstan to increase the minimum amount payable or to reduce the terms of the special arrangement, or both. The Committee concluded that it could recommend to the Health Assembly acceptance of the proposal provided that it were amended to include a requirement that, after five years, at least half the total amount of US$ 4 615 253 should be repaid, i.e. US$ 2 307 626, in addition to the payment by Kazakhstan of current year contributions, and the remainder to be paid at the latest by the end of the 10-year period.

10. The Committee noted that, in accordance with resolution WHA54.6, Member States seeking special arrangements for the settlement of arrears were invited to indicate the minimum amount that the Member State would pay each year. Proposals should also be realistic and achievable. The Committee observed that 10 years was a long time over which to settle arrears and did not wish to see this become the norm, but, rather, it was of the view that a five-year period was more appropriate, and that arrears should be settled in full within this period.

RECOMMENDATION TO THE HEALTH ASSEMBLY

11. The Committee recommended the following resolution for consideration by the Fifty-sixth World Health Assembly:

The Fifty-sixth World Health Assembly,

Having considered the third report of the Administration, Budget and Finance Committee of the Executive Board to the Fifty-sixth World Health Assembly on Members in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent which would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution;¹

Noting that, at the time of opening of the Fifty-sixth World Health Assembly, the voting rights of Afghanistan, Antigua and Barbuda, Armenia, Central African Republic, Chad, Comoros, Djibouti, Dominican Republic, Georgia, Guinea-Bissau, Iraq, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Liberia, Nauru, Niger, Nigeria, Republic of Moldova, Somalia, Suriname, Tajikistan, Togo, Turkmenistan and Ukraine remained suspended, such suspension to continue until the arrears of the Member State concerned have been reduced, at the present or future Health Assemblies, to a level below the amount which would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution;

Noting that, in accordance with resolution WHA55.4, the voting privileges of Argentina and Paraguay have been suspended as from 19 May 2003 at the opening of the Health Assembly, such suspension to continue until the arrears have been reduced to a level below the amount which would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution;

Noting that Belarus, Burundi, Peru, Saint Lucia and Venezuela were in arrears at the time of the opening of the Fifty-sixth World Health Assembly to such an extent that it was necessary for the Health Assembly to consider, in accordance with Article 7 of the Constitution, whether or not the voting privileges of these countries should be suspended at the opening of the Fifty-seventh World Health Assembly,

DECIDES:

- (1) that, in accordance with the statement of principles in resolution WHA41.7, if, by the time of the opening of the Fifty-seventh World Health Assembly, Belarus, Burundi, Peru, Saint Lucia and Venezuela are still in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent which would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution, their voting privileges shall be suspended as from the said opening;
- (2) that any suspension which takes effect as aforesaid shall continue at the Fifty-seventh and subsequent Health Assemblies, until the arrears of Belarus, Burundi, Peru, Saint Lucia and Venezuela have been reduced to a level below the amount which would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution;
- (3) that this decision shall be without prejudice to the right of any Member to request restoration of its voting privileges in accordance with Article 7 of the Constitution.

12. In respect of the proposal received from Kazakhstan, the Committee recommended that discussions should be held with Kazakhstan, as outlined in paragraphs 8 and 9 above, and that no resolution should be proposed until such discussions had taken place.

Provisional agenda item 2.3

EBABFC19/2
7 May 2003

Status of collection of assessed contributions, including Members in arrears to an extent which would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution

Report by the Secretariat

1. In order that WHO may deliver the approved programme budget in full, contributions from Member States must be received in full and on time. All Member States are required under Financial Regulation 6.4 to pay their contribution as of 1 January of the year to which they relate. Low annual rates of collection have been of serious concern to successive Executive Boards and Health Assemblies.
2. The rate of collection at end 2002 was 82%, slightly lower than at 31 December 2001. Contributions in full had been received from 116 of the 193 Members and Associate Members.¹ The rate of collection for 2003 was 27% as at 30 April 2003, compared with 33% at 30 April 2002. Annex 1 shows the status of collection as of 30 April 2003 for 193 Members and Associate Members. The significant decline in the amount collected for the current year is of concern. Nevertheless, at 30 April 2003, the number of Member States having made part payment is 57, as compared to 32 Member States at 30 April 2002. It should also be noted that at 30 April 2003, 61 Members and Associate Members had not paid any part of their contributions, which compares favourably with the situation as at 30 April 2002, when 102 Members and Associate Members had not paid any part of their contributions.
3. Unpaid contributions as at 30 April 2003 amounted to US$ 398 million, with a further US$ 9.8 million due under special arrangements authorized by the Health Assembly, payable in the future, under instalment schemes (see Annex 1, Sections 2 and 3). The unpaid amount of US$ 398 million, comprises US$ 290 million relating to 2003 and US$ 108 million for prior years. In comparison, at 30 April 2002 unpaid contributions were US$ 392 million, of which US$ 126 million was for prior years with a further US$ 5.5 million due under special arrangements. There has therefore been an improvement compared to last year of US$ 18 million in respect of collection of prior year amounts due.

¹ Timor-Leste, which became a Member of WHO on 27 September 2002, is not included in this discussion of status of collection.

4. Article 7 of the Constitution states: "If a Member fails to meet its financial obligations to the Organization ... the Health Assembly may ... suspend the voting privileges ... to which a Member is entitled." If, at the time of the opening of the Health Assembly, a Member is in arrears in an amount that equals or exceeds the amount of contributions due from it for the preceding two full years, the Health Assembly takes a decision on suspension of the Member's voting privileges in accordance with resolution WHA41.7.

5. In accordance with previous Health Assembly resolutions, the voting privileges of 24 Member States, as listed in Annex 2, have been suspended. The suspension is to continue at the Fifty-sixth and subsequent Health Assemblies until the arrears have been reduced to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution.

6. Pursuant to the adoption of resolution WHA55.4 by the Fifty-fifth World Health Assembly, the voting privileges of Argentina and Paraguay will be suspended as from the opening of the Fifty-sixth World Health Assembly on 19 May 2003 if at that time these Members are still in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution.

7. Six other Members are in arrears in the payment of their contributions in amounts that equal or exceed the amounts due from them for the preceding two full years, as listed in Annex 2.

8. Pursuant to resolution WHA41.7, unless there are exceptional circumstances justifying a different measure, the Fifty-sixth World Health Assembly may wish to adopt a decision under which the voting privileges of these Members will be suspended as from the opening day of the Fifty-seventh World Health Assembly in May 2004, if at that time the Members concerned are still in arrears to the extent referred to in paragraph 7 above.

ACTION BY THE ADMINISTRATION, BUDGET AND FINANCE COMMITTEE

9. No action is required by the Committee in respect of those Members whose voting privileges have already been suspended under previous Health Assembly resolutions, or of those Members that may lose their voting privileges as from 19 May 2003 under resolution WHA55.4 (if by that time these Members are still in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that justifies invoking Article 7 of the Constitution).

10. The Committee may wish to draft a resolution in accordance with the principles stated in resolution WHA41.7, for consideration by the Fifty-sixth World Health Assembly in respect of Belarus, Burundi, Peru, Saint Lucia, Uruguay and Venezuela.
