

Status of collection of assessed contributions, including Member States in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution

Report by the Secretariat

STATUS OF COLLECTION

1. In order that WHO may deliver the approved programme budget in full, contributions from Member States must be received in full and on time. All Member States are required under Financial Regulation 6.4 to pay their contribution as of 1 January of the year in which it is due.
2. The rate of collection for 2009 was 79%, down from 90% for 2008. The rate for 2009 has since increased to 95%, with a further US$ 100 million received in January 2010. Contributions for 2009 were received, either in full or in part, from 154 of the 195 Members and Associate Members. For the biennium 2008–2009 as a whole the rate of collection was 86%, which has increased to 97% as at 31 March 2010. Full details of amounts assessed and collected for the biennium 2008–2009 are shown in Annex 1.
3. Unpaid contributions as at 31 December 2009 amounted to US$ 144.4 million, with a further US$ 46.8 million due under special arrangements authorized by the Health Assembly, payable in the future, under instalment schemes. Details of payments made to date in respect of special arrangements are shown in Annex 2.

MEMBER'S CONTRIBUTIONS RECEIVED IN ADVANCE

4. At 31 December 2009 some Members had, either in full or in part, made advance payments against their regular budget contributions for 2010 and future years. In total, contributions received in advance at 31 December 2009 amounted to US$ 54.8 million. Advance payments are detailed by Member State in Annex 3.

MEMBERS IN ARREARS AND SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS

5. Article 7 of the Constitution states that “If a Member fails to meet its financial obligations to the Organization ... the Health Assembly may ... suspend the voting privileges ... to which a Member is entitled.” If at the time of the opening of the Health Assembly, a Member is in arrears in an amount that equals or exceeds the amount of contributions due from it for the preceding two full years, the Health Assembly takes a decision on suspension of the Member’s voting privileges in accordance with resolution WHA41.7.

6. In accordance with previous Health Assembly resolutions, the voting privileges of the following eight Member States continue to be suspended; Azerbaijan, Central African Republic, Comoros, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Dominica, Guinea-Bissau, Somalia and Tajikistan. Voting privileges for Iraq and Turkmenistan have also been suspended in accordance with Health Assembly resolutions WHA58.9 and WHA59.10 respectively. Details of the amounts outstanding are provided in Annex 4. The suspension is to continue at the Sixty-third and subsequent Health Assemblies until the arrears have been reduced to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution. The voting privileges of the following three Member States have been restored as their arrears have been reduced to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution: Argentina, Gambia and Solomon Islands. Appreciation is expressed to all Member States for their efforts to bring up to date their contributions.

7. In accordance with resolution WHA62.4 and the information provided to the Sixty-second World Health Assembly,¹ the voting privileges of Côte d’Ivoire, Marshall Island and Palau will be suspended at the Sixty-third World Health Assembly until the arrears have been reduced to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution. The voting privileges of Cape Verde and Zambia will not be suspended as their arrears have been reduced to a level below the amount that justifies invoking Article 7 of the Constitution.

8. Four other Member States, namely Belarus, Djibouti, Equatorial Guinea and Papua New Guinea, are in arrears in the payment of their contributions in amounts that equal or exceed the amounts due from them for the preceding two full years, as listed in Annex 4.

9. Pursuant to resolution WHA41.7, unless there are exceptional circumstances justifying a different measure, the Sixty-third World Health Assembly may wish to adopt a resolution deciding that the voting privileges of Belarus, Djibouti, Equatorial Guinea and Papua New Guinea will be suspended as from the opening day of the Sixty-fourth World Health Assembly in May 2011, if at that time the Member States concerned are still in arrears to the extent referred to in paragraph 7 above.

10. Member States in arrears of payment to an extent that they are concerned by Article 7 of the Constitution are encouraged to submit proposals to the Health Assembly for repaying such arrears over an extended period. Such proposals for special arrangements are considered by the Programme, Budget and Administration Committee of the Executive Board, which subsequently makes its recommendations to the Health Assembly.

11. Annex 2 lists the Member States that currently have special arrangements for repayment of arrears. Payments totalling more than US$ 6.1 million were received in 2009 in accordance with these special arrangements. All Member States concerned are respecting their commitments under these arrangements, with the exception of Azerbaijan, Central African Republic, Iraq, Tajikistan and Turkmenistan, with whom discussions on repayments are continuing.

ACTION BY THE HEALTH ASSEMBLY

12. No action is required by the Health Assembly in respect of those Members whose voting privileges have already been suspended under previous Health Assembly resolutions or of those Members that may lose their voting privileges as from 17 May 2010 under resolution WHA62.4 (if by that time these Members are still in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that justifies invoking Article 7 of the Constitution).

13. The Health Assembly may wish to consider the following draft resolution in respect of Belarus, Djibouti, Equatorial Guinea and Papua New Guinea, in accordance with the principles stated in resolution WHA41.7:

The Sixty-third World Health Assembly,

Having considered the report on status of collection of assessed contributions, including Members in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution, and special arrangements for settlement of arrears;¹

Noting that, at the time of opening of the Sixty-third World Health Assembly, the voting rights of Azerbaijan, Central African Republic, Comoros, Côte d'Ivoire, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Dominica, Guinea-Bissau, Iraq, Marshall Islands, Palau, Somalia, Tajikistan and Turkmenistan were suspended, such suspension to continue until the arrears of the Members concerned have been reduced, at the present or future Health Assemblies, to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution;

Noting that Belarus, Djibouti, Equatorial Guinea, and Papua New Guinea were in arrears at the time of the opening of the Sixty-third World Health Assembly to such an extent that it was necessary for the Health Assembly to consider, in accordance with Article 7 of the Constitution, whether or not the voting privileges of those countries should be suspended at the opening of the Sixty-fourth World Health Assembly,

DECIDES:

(1) that in accordance with the statement of principles set out in resolution WHA41.7 if, by the time of the opening of the Sixty-fourth World Health Assembly, Belarus, Djibouti, Equatorial Guinea, and Papua New Guinea are still in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution, their voting privileges shall be suspended as from the said opening;

(2) that any suspension that takes effect as set out in paragraph (1) above shall continue at subsequent Health Assemblies, until the arrears of Belarus, Djibouti,

Equatorial Guinea and Papua New Guinea have been reduced to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution;

(3) that this decision shall be without prejudice to the right of any Member to request restoration of its voting privileges in accordance with Article 7 of the Constitution.
