

Status of collection of assessed contributions, including Member States in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution

Report by the Secretariat

STATUS OF COLLECTION

1. In order that WHO may deliver the approved programme budget in full, contributions from Member States must be received in full and on time. All Member States are required under Financial Regulation 6.4 to pay their contribution as of 1 January of the year in which it is due.
2. The rate of collection for 2010 was 93%, up from 72% for 2009. Contributions for 2010 were received, either in full or in part, from 163 of the 195 Members and Associate Members (compared to 154 Members and Associate Members in 2009). Full details of assessed and collected contributions are shown in Annex 1.
3. Unpaid contributions as at 31 December 2010 amounted to US$ 45.4 million, with a further US$ 41.6 million due under special arrangements authorized by the Health Assembly, payable in the future, under instalment schemes (compared to US$ 144.4 million and US$ 46.8 million at 31 December 2009). Details of payments made as at 31 December 2010 in respect of special arrangements are shown in Annex 2.

MEMBERS' CONTRIBUTIONS RECEIVED IN ADVANCE

4. At 31 December 2010, some Member States had, either in full or in part, made advance payments against their regular budget contributions for 2011 and future years. In total, contributions received in advance at 31 December 2010 amounted to US$ 47.6 million (US$ 54.8 million at 31 December 2009). Advance payments are detailed by Member State in Annex 3.

MEMBERS IN ARREARS AND SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS

5. Article 7 of the Constitution states that "If a Member fails to meet its financial obligations to the Organization ... the Health Assembly may ... suspend the voting privileges ... to which a Member is entitled." If at the time of the opening of the Health Assembly, a Member is in arrears in an amount that equals or exceeds the amount of contributions due from it for the preceding two full years, the Health Assembly takes a decision on suspension of the Member's voting privileges in accordance with resolution WHA41.7.

6. In accordance with previous Health Assembly resolutions, the voting privileges of the following seven Member States continue to be suspended: Central African Republic, Comoros, Dominica, Guinea-Bissau, Palau, Somalia and Tajikistan. Details of the amounts outstanding are provided in Annex 4. The suspension is to continue at the Sixty-fourth World Health Assembly and subsequent Health Assemblies until the arrears have been reduced to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution. The voting privileges of the following four Member States have been restored as their arrears have been reduced to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution: Azerbaijan, Côte d'Ivoire, Democratic Republic of the Congo and Marshall Islands. Appreciation is expressed to all Members for their efforts to bring up to date their contributions.

7. As of 28 February 2011, six Member States, namely, Belarus, Ghana, Grenada, Guinea, Kiribati and Peru are in arrears in the payment of their contributions in amounts that equal or exceed the amounts due from them for the preceding two full years, as listed in Annex 4. Annex 4 also lists two Associate Members, namely, Puerto Rico and Tokelau, who are behind with their assessed contributions.

8. Pursuant to resolution WHA41.7, unless there are exceptional circumstances justifying a different measure, the Sixty-fourth World Health Assembly may wish to adopt a resolution deciding that the voting privileges of Belarus, Ghana, Grenada, Guinea, Kiribati and Peru will be suspended as from the opening day of the Sixty-fifth World Health Assembly in May 2012, if at that time the Member States concerned are still in arrears to the extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution.

9. Member States in arrears of payment to an extent that they are concerned by Article 7 of the Constitution are encouraged to submit proposals to the Health Assembly for repaying such arrears over an extended period. Such proposals for special arrangements are considered by the Programme, Budget and Administration Committee of the Executive Board, which subsequently makes its recommendations to the Health Assembly.

10. Annex 2 lists the Member States that currently have special arrangements for repayment of arrears. Payments totalling US$ 5.2 million were received in 2010 in accordance with these special arrangements. All Member States concerned are respecting their commitments under these arrangements, with the exception of Afghanistan, Central African Republic, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan and Ukraine, with whom discussions on repayments are continuing. Of these five Member States, voting privileges are already suspended for Central African Republic and Tajikistan. For Afghanistan and Kyrgyzstan, unless further payments are made by the opening of the Sixty-fourth World Health Assembly, they will lose their voting privileges. Ukraine has submitted a proposal to extend the period for repaying its arrears over the period 2013–2022.¹

ACTION BY THE HEALTH ASSEMBLY

11. No action is required by the Health Assembly in respect of those Member States whose voting privileges have already been suspended under previous Health Assembly resolutions.
12. The Health Assembly may wish to consider the following draft resolution in respect of Belarus, Ghana, Grenada, Guinea, Kiribati and Peru, in accordance with the principles stated in resolution WHA41.7:

The Sixty-fourth World Health Assembly,

Having considered the report on status of collection of assessed contributions, including Members in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution, and special arrangements for settlement of arrears;¹

Noting that, at the time of opening of the Sixty-fourth World Health Assembly, the voting rights of Central African Republic, Comoros, Dominica, Guinea-Bissau, Palau, Somalia and Tajikistan were suspended, such suspension to continue until the arrears of the Members concerned have been reduced, at the present or future Health Assemblies, to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution;

Noting that Afghanistan and Kyrgyzstan; and Belarus, Ghana, Grenada, Guinea, Kiribati and Peru were in arrears at the time of the opening of the Sixty-fourth World Health Assembly to such an extent that it was necessary for the Health Assembly to consider, in accordance with Article 7 of the Constitution, whether or not the voting privileges of those countries should be suspended, for Afghanistan and Kyrgyzstan at the opening of the Sixty-fourth World Health Assembly, and for the remaining six Member States at the opening of the Sixty-fifth World Health Assembly,

DECIDES:

- (1) that in accordance with the statement of principles set out in resolution WHA41.7 if, by the time of the opening of the Sixty-fifth World Health Assembly, Belarus, Ghana, Grenada, Guinea, Kiribati and Peru are still in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution, their voting privileges shall be suspended as from the said opening; and in accordance with resolution WHA59.6 and resolution WHA61.8 if, by the time of the opening of the Sixty-fourth World Health Assembly, Afghanistan and Kyrgyzstan, respectively, are still in arrears in the payment of their rescheduled assessments, their voting privileges shall be suspended automatically;
- (2) that any suspension that takes effect as set out in paragraph (1) above shall continue at the Sixty-sixth World Health Assembly and subsequent Health Assemblies, until the arrears of Afghanistan, Belarus, Ghana, Grenada, Guinea, Kiribati, Kyrgyzstan and Peru have been reduced to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution;

(3) that this decision shall be without prejudice to the right of any Member to request restoration of its voting privileges in accordance with Article 7 of the Constitution.
