

Special arrangements for settlement of arrears: Ukraine

Report by the Secretariat

1. In May 2004, the Government of Ukraine agreed to pay in full its rescheduled arrears amounting to US$ 36 163 544 over 15 years.¹ To date it has paid US$ 9 768 508, leaving a balance remaining of US$ 26 395 036. Given its difficult economic circumstances, Ukraine now seeks to reschedule the remaining balance over a 10-year period.
2. It should also be noted that Ukraine has been meeting in full its current-year assessments.

RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE HEALTH ASSEMBLY

3. The Programme, Budget and Administration Committee, at its meeting on 12–13 May 2011, will consider these arrangements under provisional agenda item 2.7.
4. The Committee may wish to propose the following draft resolution for consideration by the Sixty-fourth World Health Assembly:

The Sixty-fourth World Health Assembly,

Having considered the report by the Secretariat on the Status of collection of assessed contributions,² noting that Ukraine has outstanding contributions, and considering the request of Ukraine to reschedule the remaining balance of arrears under the special arrangements for settlement of arrears,

1. DECIDES to allow Ukraine to keep its voting privileges at the Sixty-fourth World Health Assembly on the following conditions:
