III. Technical briefings

The following technical briefings will take place during the Sixty-fourth World Health Assembly.

Wednesday, 18 May 2011

12:30–14:15

Room XII

Addressing noncommunicable diseases: current status and moving forward

There will be interpretation in Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish

The technical briefing will provide Member States with an overview of the current status of the NCD epidemic, progress towards the United Nations General Assembly High-level Meeting and the outcomes from relevant regional and global events to date, including the Global Ministerial Conference. The event will also provide an opportunity for Member States to discuss the preparations and high-level participation in the HLM.

Thursday, 19 May 2011

12:30–14:15

Room XII

Commission on Information and Accountability for Women's and Children's Health

There will be interpretation in Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish

Accountability is critical to the implementation of the Global Strategy for Women's and Children's Health - aimed at saving the lives of 16 million women and children. The Commission on Information and Accountability for Women's and Children's Health was established by WHO at the request of the United Nations Secretary-General to propose an accountability framework for reporting, oversight and accountability on women's and children's health. The briefing will provide an overview of the framework that will empower both donor and recipient countries to monitor resources and facilitate the gathering of the best evidence on the effectiveness of programmes in improving the lives of women and children.

Friday, 20 May 2011

12:30–14:15

Room XII

Towards a successful implementation of the WHO Global Code of Practice on the International Recruitment of Health Personnel: challenges and opportunities

There will be interpretation in Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish

This Technical Briefing will discuss the implementation and monitoring the implementation of the WHO Global Code of Practice on the International Recruitment of Health Personnel ("the Code"). The briefing aims to provide Member States and other stakeholders with an opportunity to discuss and engage in a dialogue on challenges and opportunities associated with the Code implementation, monitoring and reporting. Presentations from selected countries and the WHO Secretariat will be made. This will be followed by a general discussion supported by resource persons from civil society and health care organizations. The Code itself as well as complementary documents to the Code shall be made available.
