Status of collection of assessed contributions, including Member States in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution

Report of the Programme, Budget and Administration Committee of the Executive Board to the Seventy-seventh World Health Assembly

1. The Secretariat reported that since the publication of document A77/21, the following Member States had paid their arrears of an amount sufficient to remove them from the draft resolution: Belize, Paraguay, Rwanda, Senegal and Suriname.

RECOMMENDATION TO THE HEALTH ASSEMBLY

2. The Committee, on behalf of the Executive Board, recommended that the Health Assembly should note the report and adopt the draft resolution contained in document A77/21, paragraph 13, as amended:

   The Seventy-seventh World Health Assembly,

   Having considered the report on status of collection of assessed contributions, including Member States in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution, and special arrangements for settlement of arrears;

   Having noted the report of the Programme, Budget and Administration Committee of the Executive Board to the Seventy-seventh World Health Assembly;¹

   Noting that, at the time of opening of the Seventy-seventh World Health Assembly, the voting rights of Afghanistan, Central African Republic, Comoros, Dominica, Gabon, Lebanon, Lesotho, Sao Tome and Principe, Sierra Leone, Somalia, South Sudan, Sudan, Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of) and Yemen were suspended, such suspension shall continue until the arrears of the Member States concerned have been reduced, at the present or future Health Assemblies, to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution;

   Noting that Belize, Bolivia (Plurinational State of), Cameroon, Democratic Republic of the Congo, and Pakistan, Paraguay, Rwanda, Senegal and Suriname were in arrears at the time of the opening of the Seventy-seventh World Health Assembly to such an extent that it was necessary for the Health Assembly to consider, in accordance with Article 7 of the Constitution, whether the voting privileges of those countries should be suspended at the opening of the Seventy-eighth World Health Assembly in 2025,

DECIDES:

(1) that, in accordance with the statement of principles set out in resolution WHA41.7 (1988), if, by the time of the opening of the Seventy-eighth World Health Assembly, Belize, Bolivia (Plurinational State of), Cameroon, Democratic Republic of the Congo and Pakistan, Paraguay, Rwanda, Senegal and Suriname are still in arrears in the payment of their contributions to an extent that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution, their voting privileges shall be suspended as from the said opening;

(2) that any suspension that takes effect as set out in paragraph (1) above shall continue at the Seventy-seventh World Health Assembly and subsequent Health Assemblies, until the arrears have been reduced to a level below the amount that would justify invoking Article 7 of the Constitution;

(3) that this decision shall be without prejudice to the right of any Member to request restoration of its voting privileges in accordance with Article 7 of the Constitution.
