Bureau’s proposed draft outline of the final report of the WGPR to the Seventy-fifth World Health Assembly

1. Acknowledgement and preface

2. Executive summary

3. Background, mandate, and scope of the Member States Working Group on Strengthening WHO Preparedness and Response to Health Emergencies (WGPR)

   (a) Pursuant to resolution WHA74.7 (2021), the WGPR was requested to “submit a report with proposed actions for the WHO Secretariat, Member States and non-State actors, as appropriate, for consideration by the Seventy-fifth World Health Assembly through the Executive Board at its 150th session”.

   (b) Short summary of the process and analysis, where the WGPR proposes different pathways for implementation of the recommendations

      (i) Proposed actions from the WGPR

      (ii) Proposed recommendations to be taken up by the Intergovernmental Negotiating Body to draft and negotiate a WHO convention, agreement or other international instrument on pandemic prevention, preparedness and response (INB)

      (iii) Identification of recommendations that require further discussions to reach consensus in WHO and other forums

4. Recommendations of the WGPR to the Seventy-Fifth World Health Assembly

   (a) The proposed actions to be organized by target group (as below):

      (i) WHO

      (ii) Member States

      (iii) Other stakeholders

   (b) The proposed actions could include, as appropriate, timelines and modalities for implementation.
(c) The report could conclude with a draft decision, for the Health Assembly’s consideration, by which the Health Assembly could, if it so agreed, adopt the proposed actions in the WGPR’s final report.

Note:

Consideration to be given to including two annexes:

(i) Categorizing the proposed actions by the four categories: equity, systems and tools, leadership and governance, and financing

(ii) Categorizing the proposed actions as laid out by resolution WHA74.7, and their implementation status

5. Decision point

The text of the draft decision could be similar to the following.

The Member States Working Group on Strengthening WHO Preparedness and Response to Health Emergencies invites the Seventy-fifth World Health Assembly to consider the following draft decision:

The Seventy-fifth World Health Assembly, having considered the report of the Member States Working Group on Strengthening WHO Preparedness and Response to Health Emergencies (document A/75/XX), decided to adopt the proposed actions set out in that report and reproduced in Annex ZZ to this decision.
