

The Regional Committee

RECOMMENDS to Member States which have not already done so to nominate a member of the staff either of their Directorate of Health or of their national information service to act as Liaison Officer with the Public Information Unit of the Regional Office, to consult on the most effective ways of carrying on public information activities in their country, and to be responsible within that country for the distribution of public information material put out by the World Health Organization.