TECHNICAL DISCUSSIONS AT FUTURE SESSIONS
OF THE REGIONAL COMMITTEE

1. Topics already selected for technical discussions

1953 Education and training programme for medical and health personnel in Europe
1954 Education and training programme for medical and health personnel in Europe (cont'd)
1955 Changes in health services necessitated by the aging of populations
1956 Prevention of accidents in the home
1957 Integration of preventive, social and curative medicine in health services
1958 Collaboration between scientific, administrative and educational bodies in improving health services
1959 The place of mental health in a public health programme
1960 Public health as a scientific discipline
1961 Cancer as a public health problem
1962 Planning and organization of postgraduate medical education in relation to the needs of a country
1963 The organization of resuscitation and casualty services
1964 The pre-symptomatic diagnosis of diseases by organized screening procedures
1965 The organization and functioning of poisons information centres
1966 Causes and prevention of perinatal mortality
1967 The pattern of active immunization against communicable diseases in Europe
1968  Current trends in undergraduate medical education
1969  Road traffic accidents as a public health problem

2. Topics already proposed for technical discussions

- Public health problems of air pollution
- The organizational problems related to rehabilitation
- The problems related to the nursing care and treatment of the chronic sick
- Public health problems arising from the development of large cities and satellite towns
- Radiation protection and the public health problems of atomic energy
- Noise control
- The influence of public health services on economic development
- Factors affecting maternal mortality
- Control of infection in hospitals
- The public health problems of the disabled child
- The place of dental health in public health
- Epidemic hepatitis
- The control of diseases of the circulatory system from the public health standpoint
- Organization of nursing services and education of nursing personnel
- The organization of medico-social care for elderly persons at home
- Prevention and control of cardiovascular diseases in Europe
- Application of modern electronic data processing to medical research, medical care and public health work
- The diagnosis and hospitalization of smallpox cases
- Prevention and control of drug addiction