

EB7.R3 Designation of Laboratories for International Certification of Immunity against Yellow Fever

The Executive Board

APPROVES the Stanleyville Laboratory, Belgian Congo, for the carrying out of sero-protection tests required for the international certification of immunity against yellow fever.

(Adopted at the second meeting, 22 January 1951)